SOME sleepy headed baggage huster that didn't hustle is responsible for a disappointment at the Hipp last night, when the Hawaiian troupe appeared at the theatre, minus baggage, instruments and their sweet disposition. They expect to be able to go on today, and fill out the week. The act of Newland and Willis is a classy big time double, the little lady being an adept at the ivories while the gentleman has talent that is worth while. They, with the Hawaiians and the Bon Bon Revue make up a bill of unusual merit for the latter part of the week.

Plenty of Variety for Ray.

"The Egg Crate Wallop" has all the surprising merits of a Charles Ray hit—and something more. The story opens in the kind of atmosphere the youthful star can make live before your eyes—the little country town. Mr. Ray is the assistant express agent, in love with pretty Kitty, his boss's daughter. Then Fate, in the shape of the theft of $2,000 from the express office, dashes him out of his rural surroundings and into the "studio" of a prize fight promoter.

Charles Ray shows a new and delightful versatility. Incidentally, he exhibits a crop in his good right arm that would do credit to a professional. The climax of the story is in the prize ring—an honest-to-goodness ring, with resined canvas, preliminary bouts between regular pugilists, and five hundred frenzied fight fans in the bleachers. Here Ray goes five furious rounds to a knock-out with an experienced opponent, who, according to the story, is the real thief of the money. But winning the mill cleared up the mystery of the theft and won him the girl, who is pretty Colleen Moore, so he was amply repaid.

Love Mixed With Mountain Feud.

If Steve Honeycutt and Widow Hawn had followed the advice of their children, Mary Pickford wouldn't be able to offer such a wonderful picture as "Heart O' the Hills," adapted from the story by John Fox, Jr., which is a week attraction at the Dixie.

As Mavis Hawn, Miss Pickford takes the part of a Kentucky mountain girl at war with certain factors which she knows nothing of and determined at last to put an end to all time to come to the whippings which her mother has been liberally inflicting.

A love tale is interwoven in the plot about a mountain feud of long-standing and the story affords Miss Pickford ample opportunity to score such triumphs of characterization "Daddy Longlegs," and "The Hoodlum," her previous attractions from her own studios and released through First National Exhibitors' Circuit.

Mavis and her sweetheart, Jason Honeycutt, oppose the marriage of their parents for the reason that Honeycutt's prime motive is prompted by a desire to secure Widow Hawn's valuable coal lands. The children, when grown, fire a double shot that ends Honeycutt's life, when they find he is responsible for the murder of Mavis' father.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you can't feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.

than the Princess is offering today would be hard to find, especially if one likes good comedy. There's Mabel Normand in "Pinto," a breezy story with an atmosphere from the west which has enough punch and action to admit of the comedy. In addition is the Bill Parsons comedy and the Pathe News.

Pythians to Have
Monthly Socials

A social stunt of some kind is planned for at least once a month from now on by the entertainment committee of Mt. City Lodge No. 48, K. of P. Last night after the regular sessions, refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour spent. There was a large crowd out last night, despite the counter attraction of the big minstrel show.

Some important matters came before the lodge for discussion but were postponed as to final action until the first meeting night in March.

One of the features of entertainment planned by the committee for the near future is a big dance which will be held in the Masonic Temple and will be a very elaborate affair. Details of this event will be announced later.

The General Electric Co. has taken out $50,000,000 insurance for 70,000 employees.

The latest pin factory is in Birmingham, England, where something like 50,000,000 pins are manufactured every working day.

In his left he packs a kick like a mule; in his right a horseshoe; but the blows of his heart for one make the might of his fists seem tame.

It's a wonderful story for wonderful Charles Ray—a mighty story of the squared ring where strong men battle for money, for fame, and for love and right!
